

Field: Education
Name: ADD International
Location: Dhaka, Bangladesh
Name of Position: Internship in Development Cooperation

Brief Description of Organization:

Core Purpose: To have a positive impact on the lives of disabled people living in poverty.
Strategic Role: To promote the empowerment of disabled people living in poverty for the realisation of their rights and their full inclusion in all areas of life. ADD work in 26 districts, nearly half of the country organising people with disability for social inclusion, justice and rights. ADD work with grassroots organisations, civil society and the government. Some notable impacts are: improved livelihood; disabled people are organised, aware of their situation and claim rights; society is more positive in terms of acceptance, responding and ensuring services; there are policies and law that protect and promote rights. ADD work in 12 countries in Asia and Africa. We work in 26 district of Bangladesh.

Information Specific to the Internship:

Qualifications:

Area of studies: international development, public administration, economics, public policy, public health, humanitarian assistance, business administration; understanding and some experience of research work.

Good communication, writing and presentation skills; some understanding of international development and public policy (preferred), Interest to work with poor people including persons with disabilities.

Primary Responsibilities:

Visit rural and urban areas to understand the poverty of the country Interact with disabled people to understand their needs and rights Meet with policy makers and duty bearers Interview development agencies, donors, UN agencies to understand their policy and program to support disabled people Organize meeting/ seminar with policy makers, bilateral and multilateral donors and development agencies

Stipend:

ADD International will provide assistance in finding housing, transportation, language training, and cultural excursions.

To Apply:

Send resume, cover letter, and one letter of recommendation to Mosharraf Hossain, Country Director, ADD International, Bangladesh , mosharraf1964@gmail.com; mosharraf.hossain@add.org.bd

Website:

Official site: #www.add.org.uk; www.add.org.bd